The following is a translation of a propaganda tract

"The representatives of the Union of Bulgarian Peasants abroad notify all branches of the Union of Bulgarian Peasants abroad and in Bulgaria that:

1. "The so-called representation of the Union of Bulgarian Peasants by Dr. Georgi M. Dimitrov has nothing in common with the Union itself, whose leaders, Gichev, Muraviev, Vergios Dimov, and Asen Stamboliski, are imprisoned in Bulgaria. Dr. Georgi M. Dimitrov and his followers desire to recreate the organization under the name Pladne. With the constitution of this political group, Dimitrov demonstrates that he has no intention of respecting the historic agreement of Gichev, Dimitrov and Petkov, as a result of which such a great victory was gained in the National Assembly after World War II.

2. "People who have nothing in common with the Union of Bulgarian Peasants, and those blinded by personal ambition have proclaimed themselves leaders of the Bulgarian peasants and publish the newspaper Zemledelsko Zname, which has no connection with the Union. The only bona fide Union communications abroad are those signed by Engineer Toncho Tenev.

3. "On Dimitrov's Free and Independent Bulgaria Committee there are no members of the Union of Bulgarian Peasants. The committee is made up of seven Pladne members, two members of Zveno, two left-wing socialists and two independentists. The activity of the committee resembles in many respects the present Patriotic Front in Bulgaria. The Union of Bulgarian Peasants and Bulgarian emigration circles will not take part in the committee, and will disapprove of and condemn its activity.

4. "In the interest of the Bulgarian people and Bulgarians abroad, the Union of Bulgarian Peasants will collaborate with all national patriotic organizations and with individuals. The Union will also participate in the various committees active in safeguarding the interests of the Bulgarian people at home and abroad.
